

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF WINE ECONOMISTS

Economics Department, New York University
19 West 4th Street, 6th Floor, New York, NY 10012

Tel: +1 (212) 992-8083, Fax +1 (212) 995-4186

email: aawe@wine-economics.org, URL: <http://www.wine-economics.org>

The American Association of Wine Economists AAWE offers

3 Scholarships for Research Papers in Wine Economics

Each Scholarship provides US$1,000 and grants Free Admission to the 14th Annual AAWE Conference in Tbilisi/Georgia (Aug 24-28, 2022)

We consider all wine topics related to economics, statistics, and business including submissions that overlap with adjacent fields such as psychology, neuroscience, history, linguistics, viticulture, or enology.

Eligibility and Submission: The objective of the scholarships is to foster high quality research in wine economics. The awards are aimed at economists in their early carrier stages including, but not limited to, graduate students and assistant professors. There is no age limit. In order to be eligible for scholarship application, we require that at least one author is a current AAWE member (join for $79/year).

Submit a 2,000-word outline and your CV by March 31, 2022, to scholarships-tbilisi-2022@wine-economics.org

Funded Projects will be selected by April 30, 2022. Selected projects must be completed by July 20, 2022, and be presented at the Annual AAWE Conference in Tbilisi (Aug 24–28, 2022). Subsequent submission to the Journal of Wine Economics is encouraged.

For more information email Dr. Karl Storchmann at karl.storchmann@nyu.edu or aawe@wine-economics.org